

Cedar Park Residential and Nursing Home

Our three-storey Georgian building creates a striking impression in this quiet residential street in Oldfield. The home was once run by Catholic nuns, and evidence of its past remains in the white Madonna (or 'shrine of our lady') situated in the front grounds.

In the main house or Georgian Wing, period features such as painted wood panelling and carved coving give a refined feel to the home. The light, airy dining room opens out onto a raised sun terrace leading to an unusual feature of the house - an apple orchard. Residents enjoy pleasant afternoon strolls here, or simply sit in quiet contemplation.

Across the way, the modern Orchard wing has a welcoming, modern feel, and the lounge and dining room feel like a real home-from-home.

At Cedar Park, as at all the Cedar Care Homes, you'll be part of a happy and stimulating household, where our standard of care improves the quality of life for everyone – adding life to years.

We look forward to welcoming you.
