

Eden Mansions

Situated in Styal, a tranquil suburb in Cheshire, Eden Mansions is a classic dwelling – homely in appearance and atmosphere. Set amongst open fields, there is a feeling of being in the countryside, yet it is not far from Wilmslow, making local amenities accessible.

The home is organised and staffed to function as three houses:

- Stannylands House accommodates people needing high levels of general nursing and personal care.
- Capesthorne House accommodates people in early to middle stages of dementia.
- Styal House accommodates people in middle to late stages of dementia.

The grounds are developed around the house to provide choices: the garden patio leading onto lush lawns bordered by mature trees at the front, the cosy little courtyard at the rear and, encircled by the house, the large courtyard garden with an ornamental fountain affording the freedom to walk around its paved walkway.

At Eden Mansions, you'll be part of a happy and stimulating household, where our standard of care improves the quality of life for everyone – adding life to years.

We look forward to welcoming you.
